

Ruth

A Gentile led to know her Redeemer because of the influence of a Jewish wife. After receiving a covenant, she works in the master's field protected until the harvest when they wed.

Elimelech

"God the King" leads his family out of the land for punishment. He makes his Jewish wife a widow. Later, his inheritance is redeemed by a man who lives according to the Law.

A Jewish man the line of the seed promise who keeps the Law to willingly redeem both Jew and Gentile. He pays the price another couldn't pay. People will call upon his name in Bethlehem and all Israel. He produces many heirs to receive the inheritance of Elimelech.

Close Relative

A blood relative to Boaz who cannot pay the price required by law and so Boaz walks in his place paying the price and fulfilling the Law to redeem the widows.

Naomi

A bitter Jewish widow returns to her land seeking rest. She endures dark times awaiting a son. She helps a Gentile find a redeemer, who then becomes her means of obtaining rest in the end.

Boaz

Christ

