

Romans Chapter 13 Family Review

Romans 13 (Government)

Supporting Truths Kids Can Grasp:

- God establishes governing authorities, and believers should submit to them. (Romans 13:1).
- Government exists to restrain evil and promote what is good. (Romans 13:3-4).
- Christians should pay what they owe and show respect and honor to others. (Romans 13:6-7).
- Loving others fulfills God's commands for how we treat people. (Romans 13:8-10).
- Because Jesus could return at any time, believers should turn from sin and live in the light. (Romans 13:11-14).

Family Action: Talk to your kids about how sometimes it may be hard to follow those in charge. Give examples of how we can still obey authority even if we don't like it.
